A STORY OF THE BRONZE AGE

VOLUME I

After the Flood ended,

Japheth journeyed north.

The Cold Strategist

And Shem journeyed eastward, carrying the name of God in silence, living simply,

Ham journeyed westward.

Ham became builder of walls
and gatherer of gold.

He spread his fences wider,
measuring land with pride.

While Canaan
became a agent of Chaos,
a pilgrim of Corruption.

His nephew Nimrod,
was born.

The mighty hunter of Canaan,
who rose with bow in hand,
plucking men from their tribes,

smearing cave art upon the stone,
and founding the early city of Babylon,
built upon the memory of conquest.

But in the days of Peleg,
the tremors ceased;

the earth had been divided. It finally rested, and had become
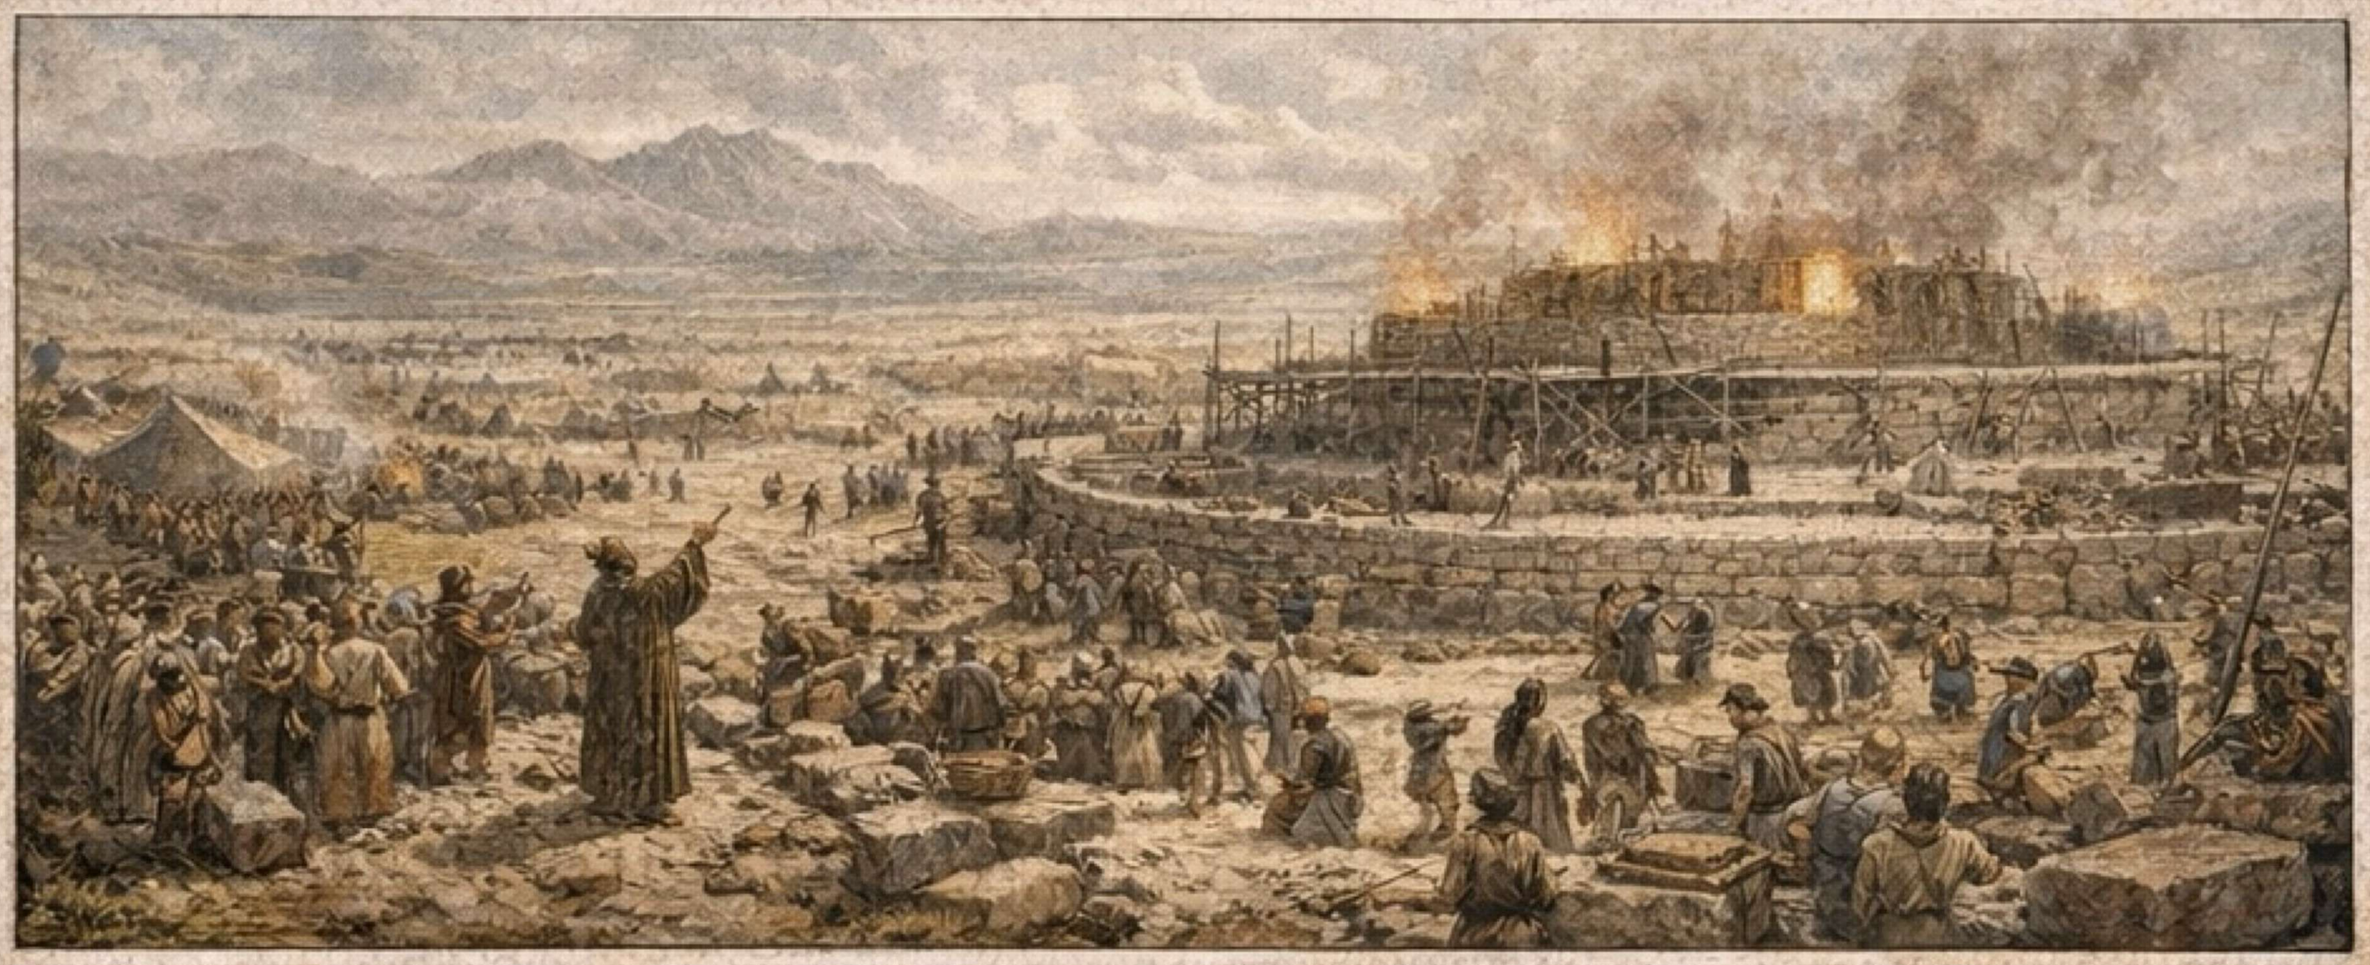
the Seven Mighty Continents of the world.

Genesis 11:1–4;

"The whole earth was of one language
and of one speech."

As they traveled east,
they found a plain in the land of Shinar,
and they lived there.



They said,
‘Come,
let’s build ourselves a city,
and a tower
whose top reaches to the sky,’

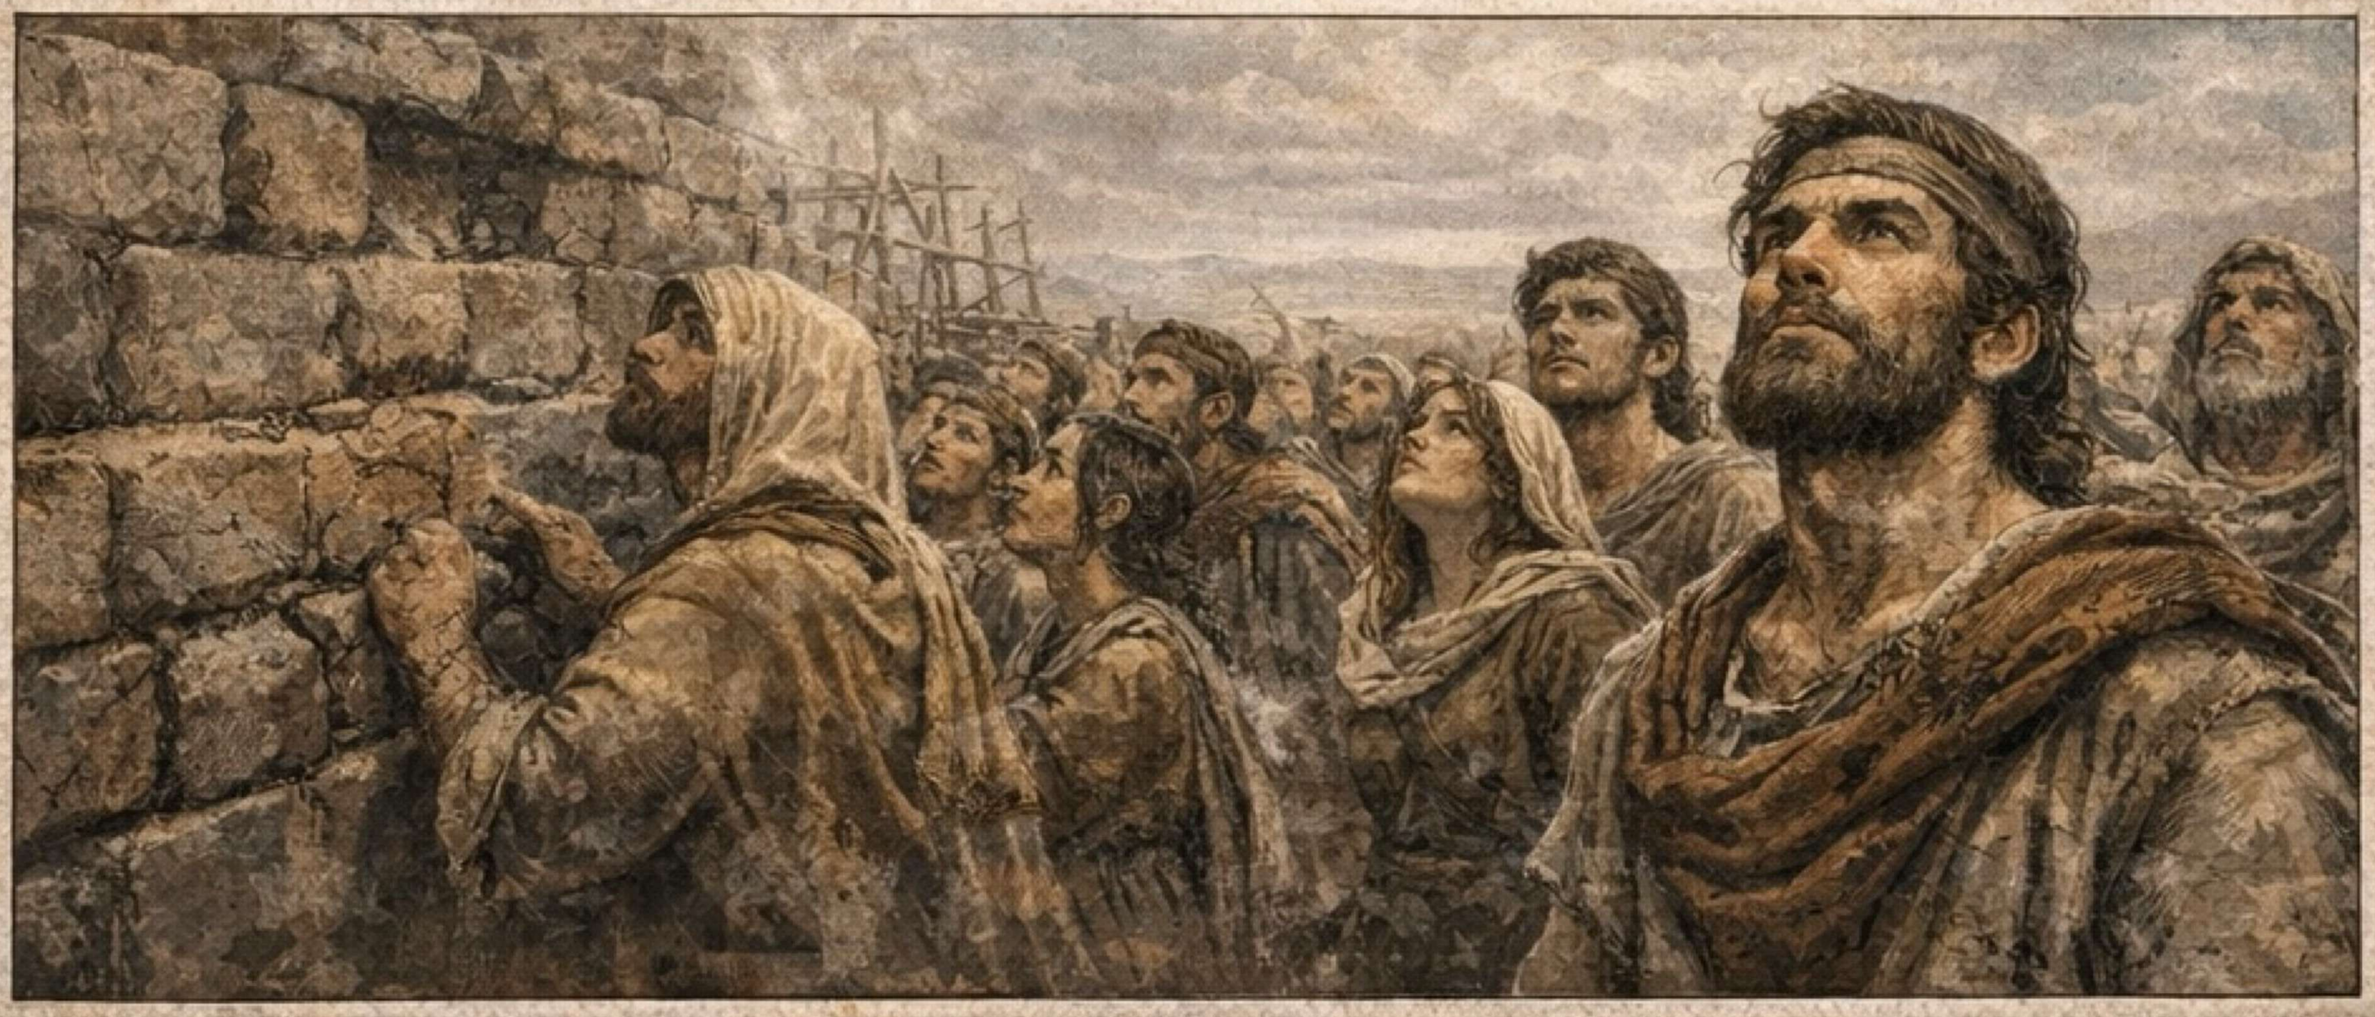
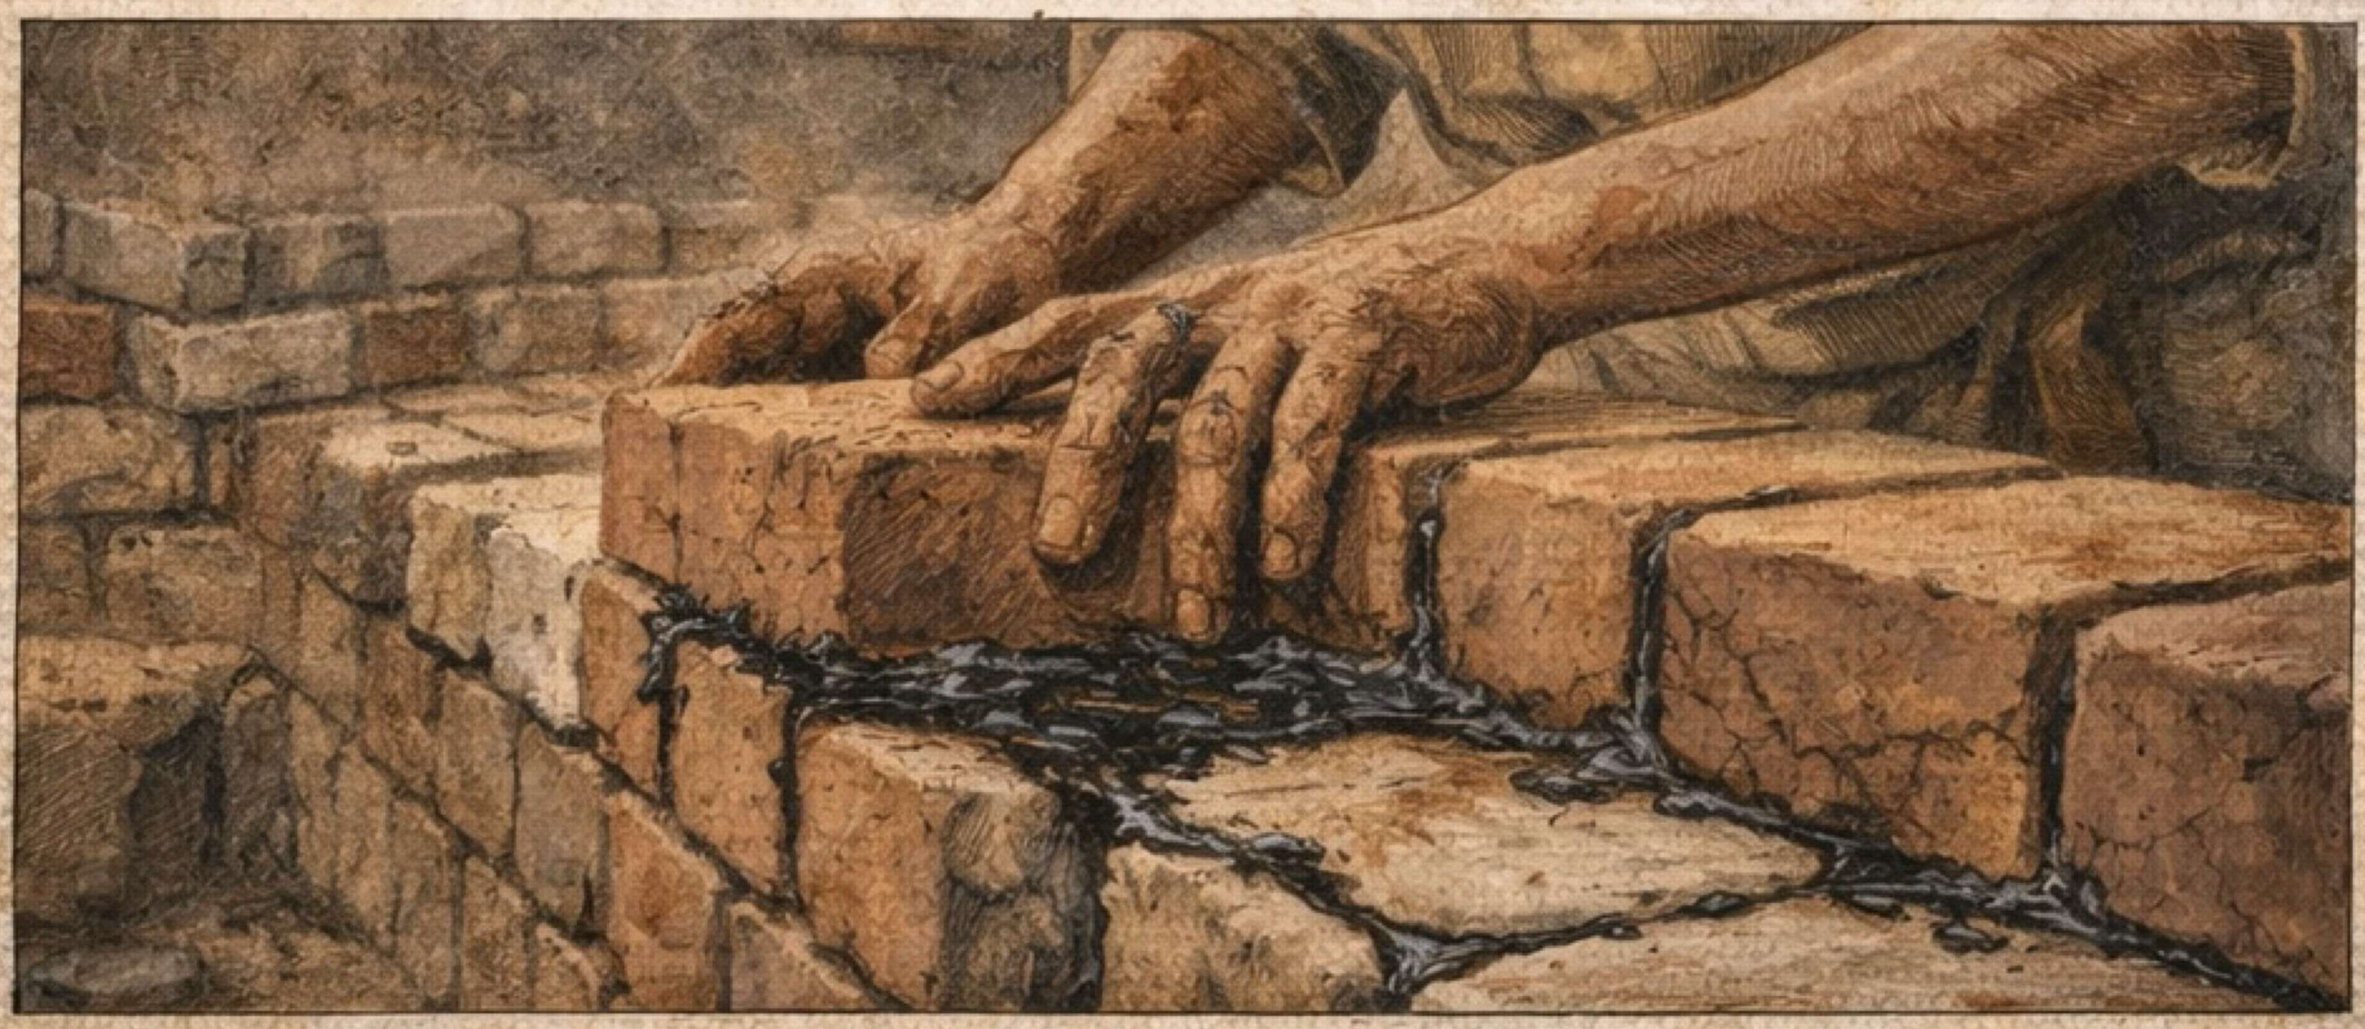
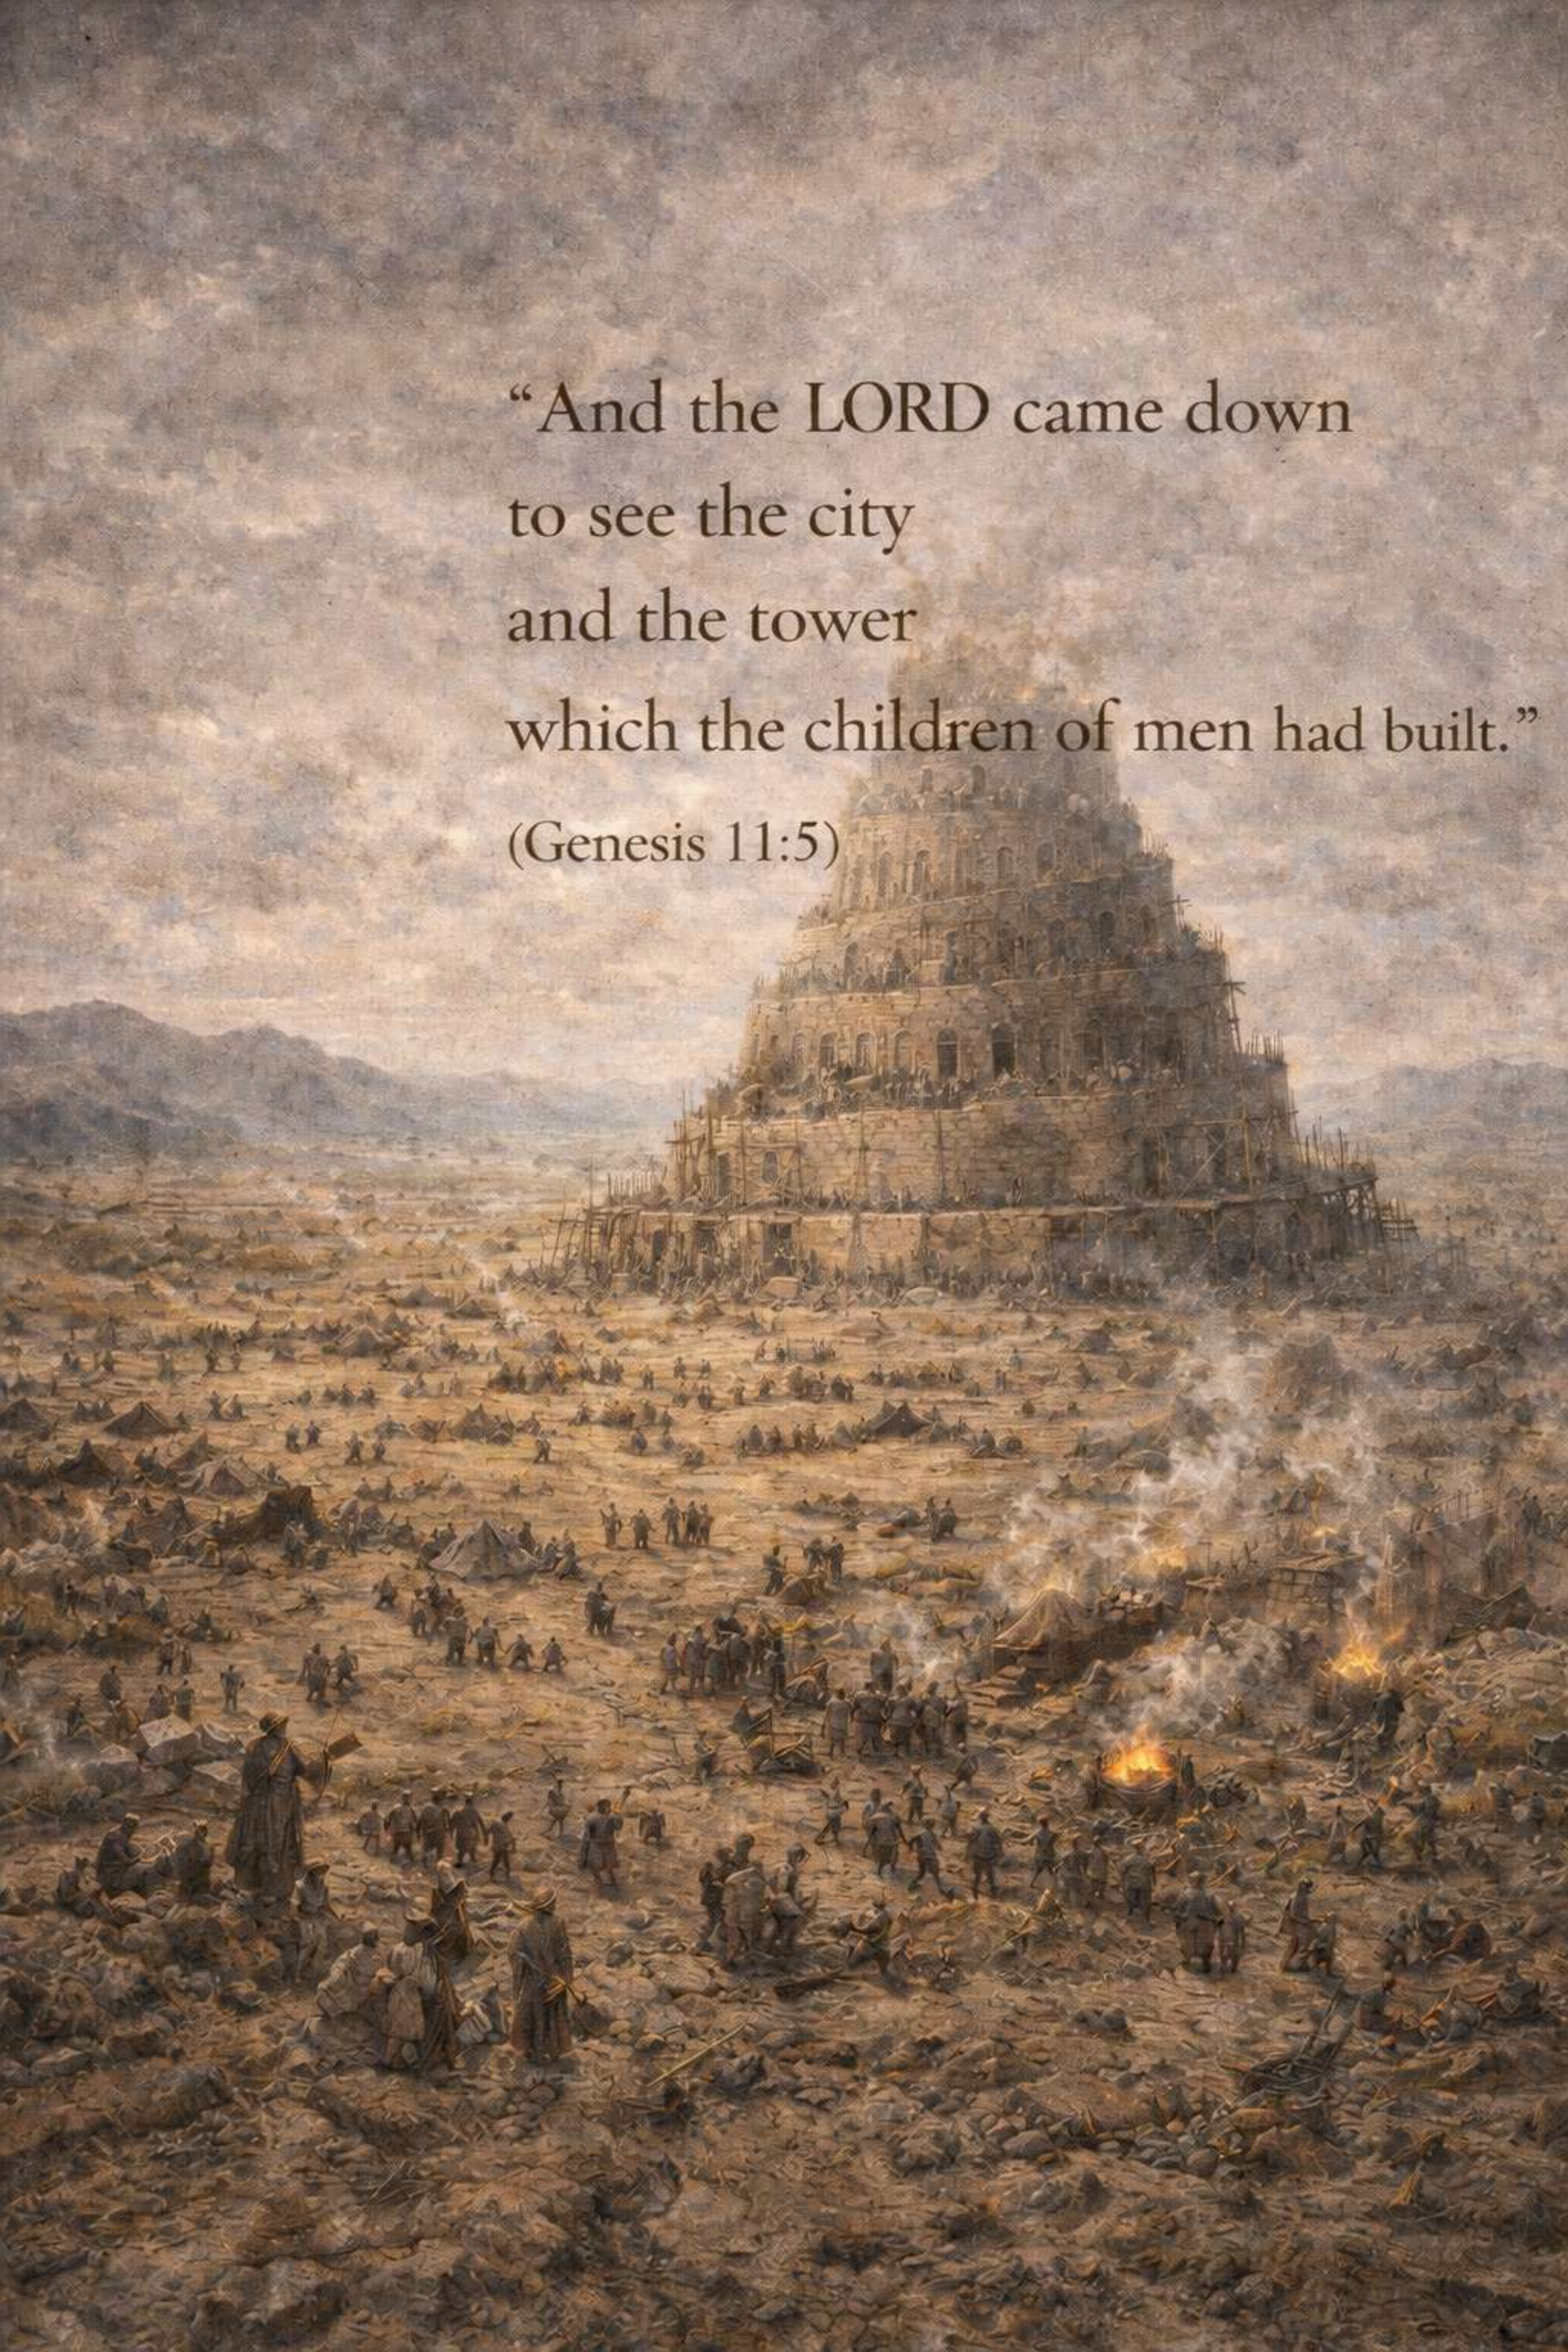
and let’s make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth.”



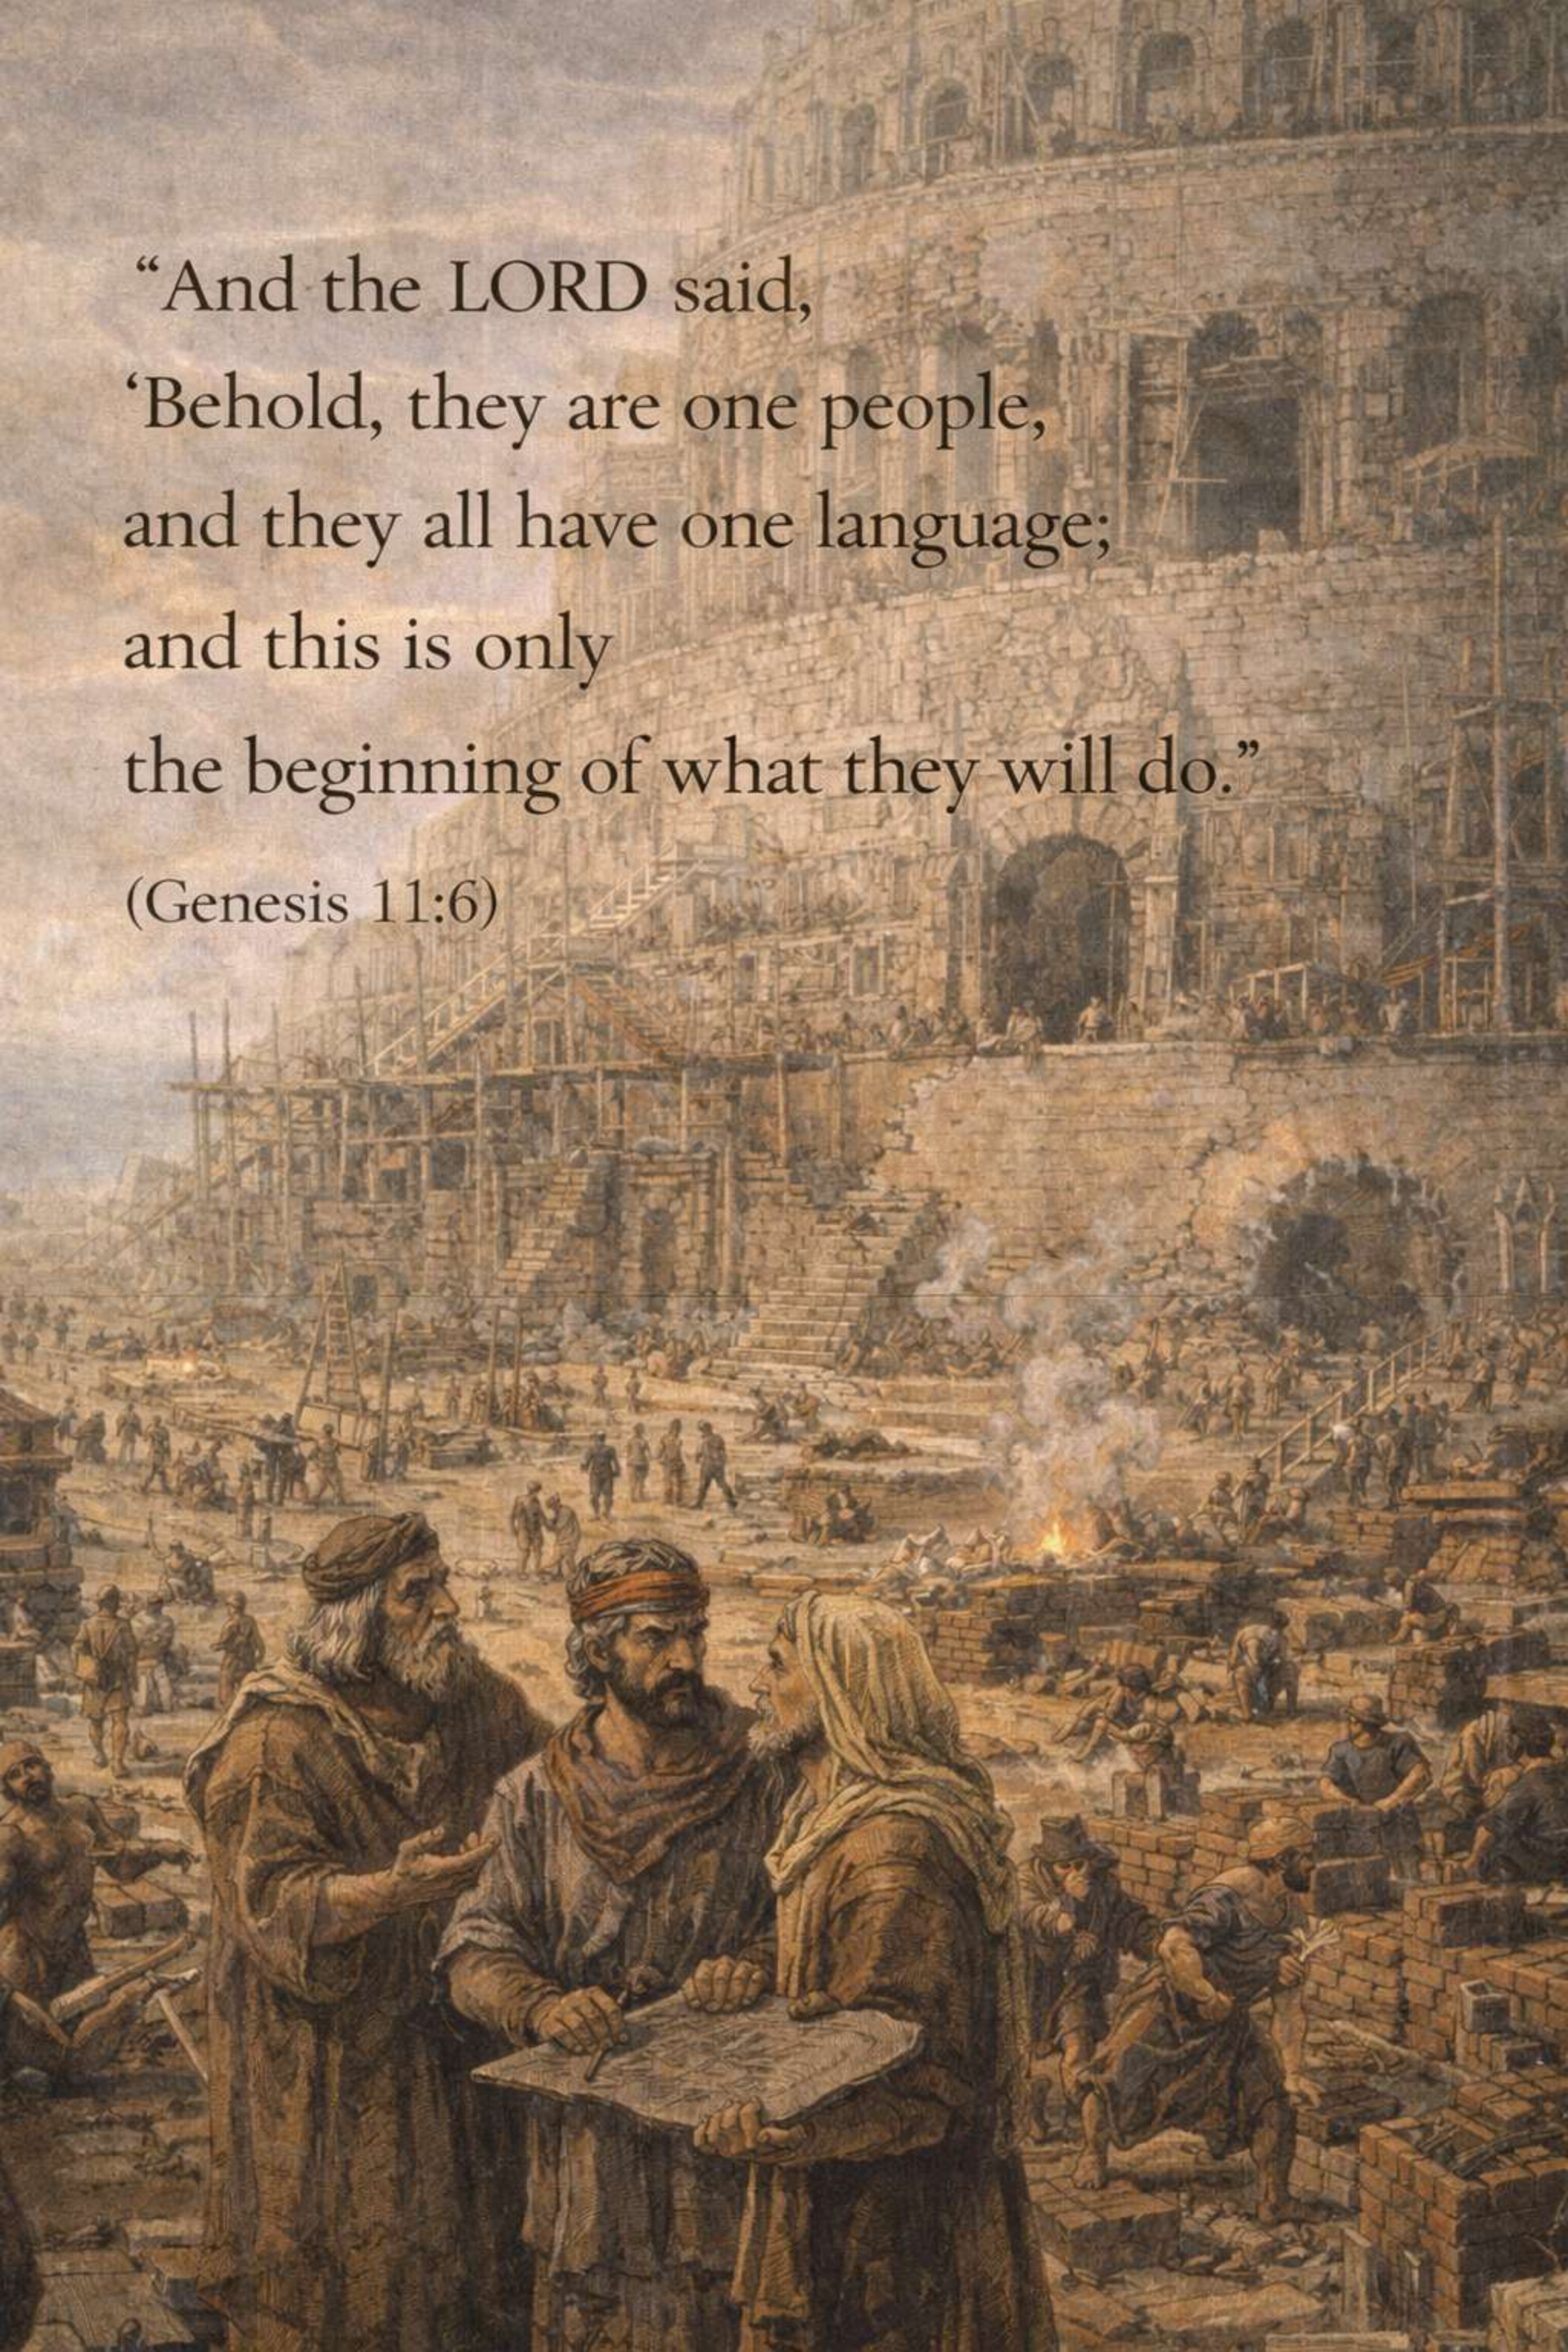
They said to one another, ‘Come,
let’s make bricks,
and burn them thoroghly.’

They had brick for stone,
and they used tar for mortar.

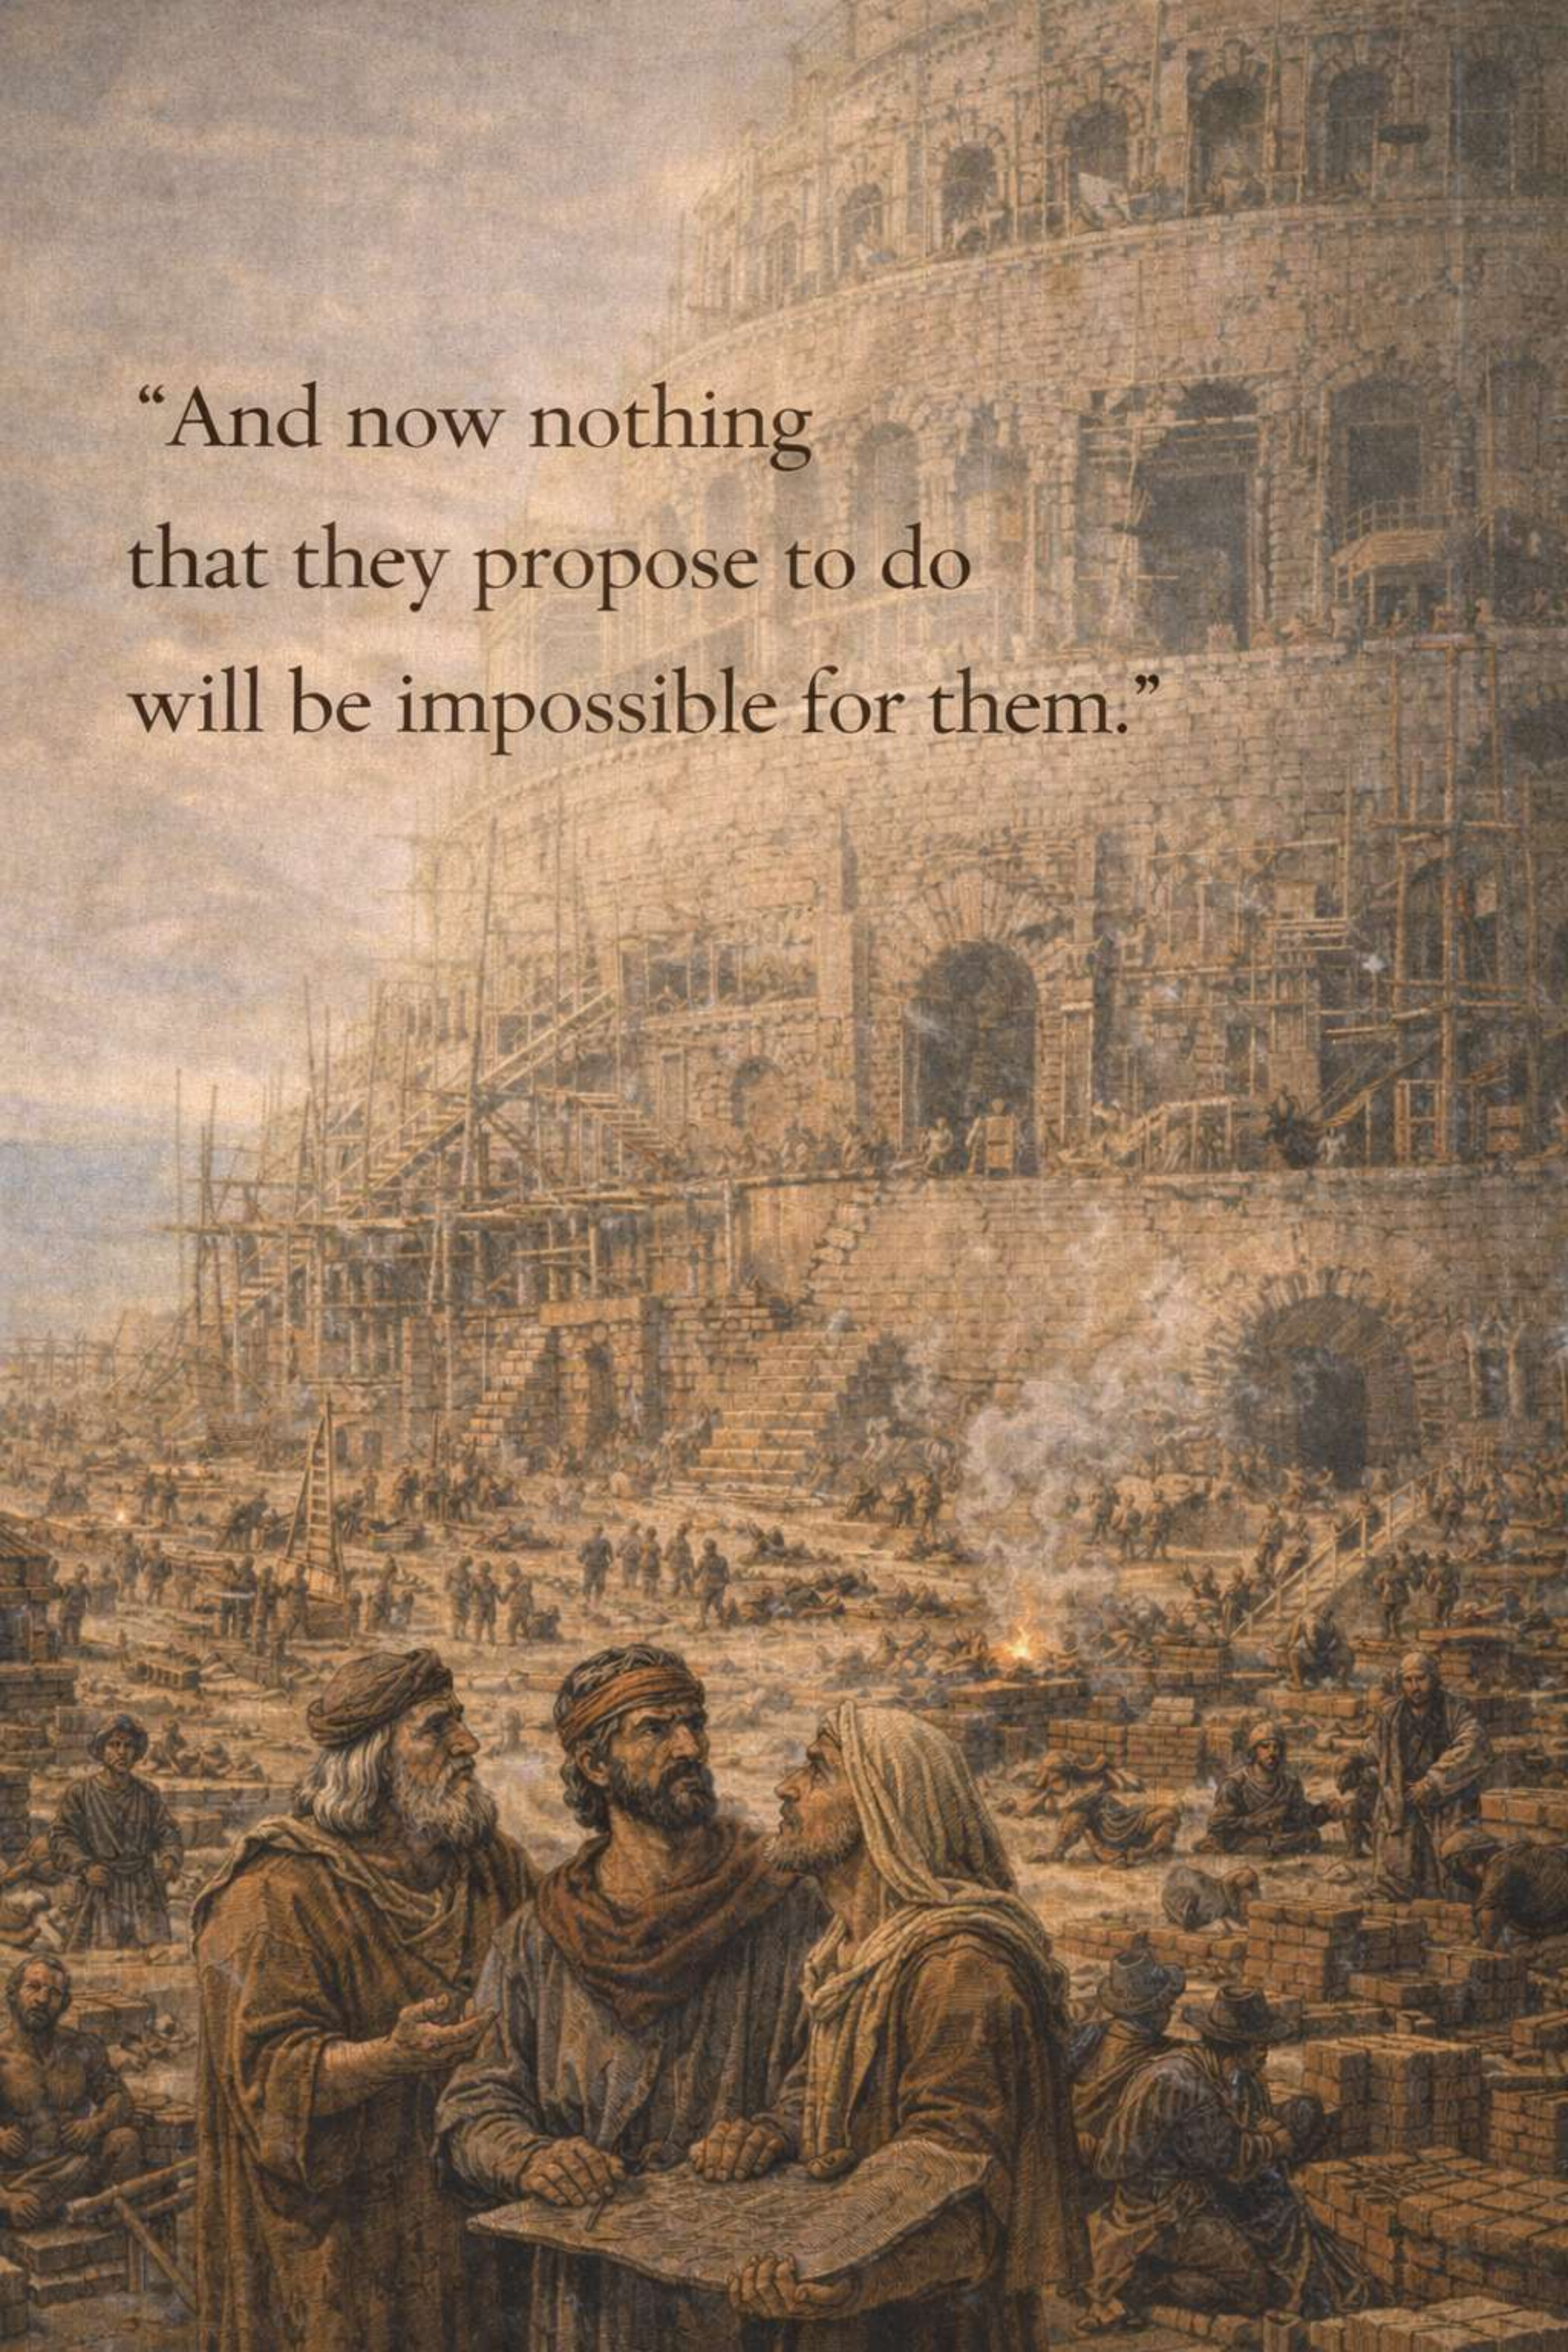




"And the LORD came down
to see the city
and the tower
which the children of men had built."
(Genesis 11:5)



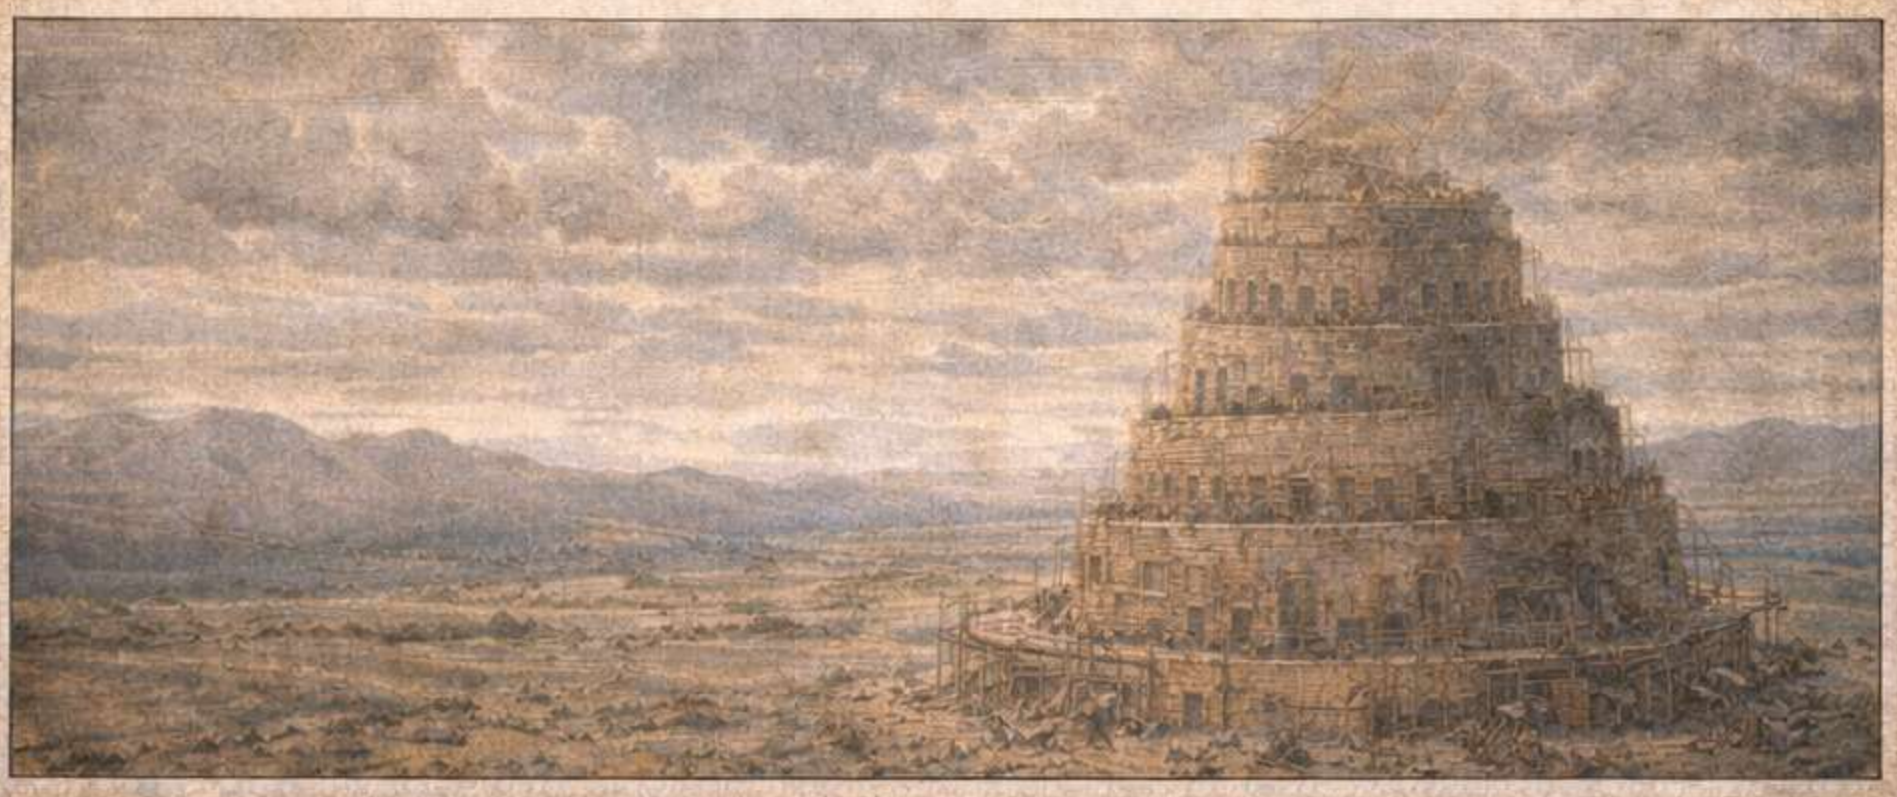
"And the LORD said,
'Behold, they are one people,
and they all have one language;
and this is only
the beginning of what they will do."
(Genesis 11:6)

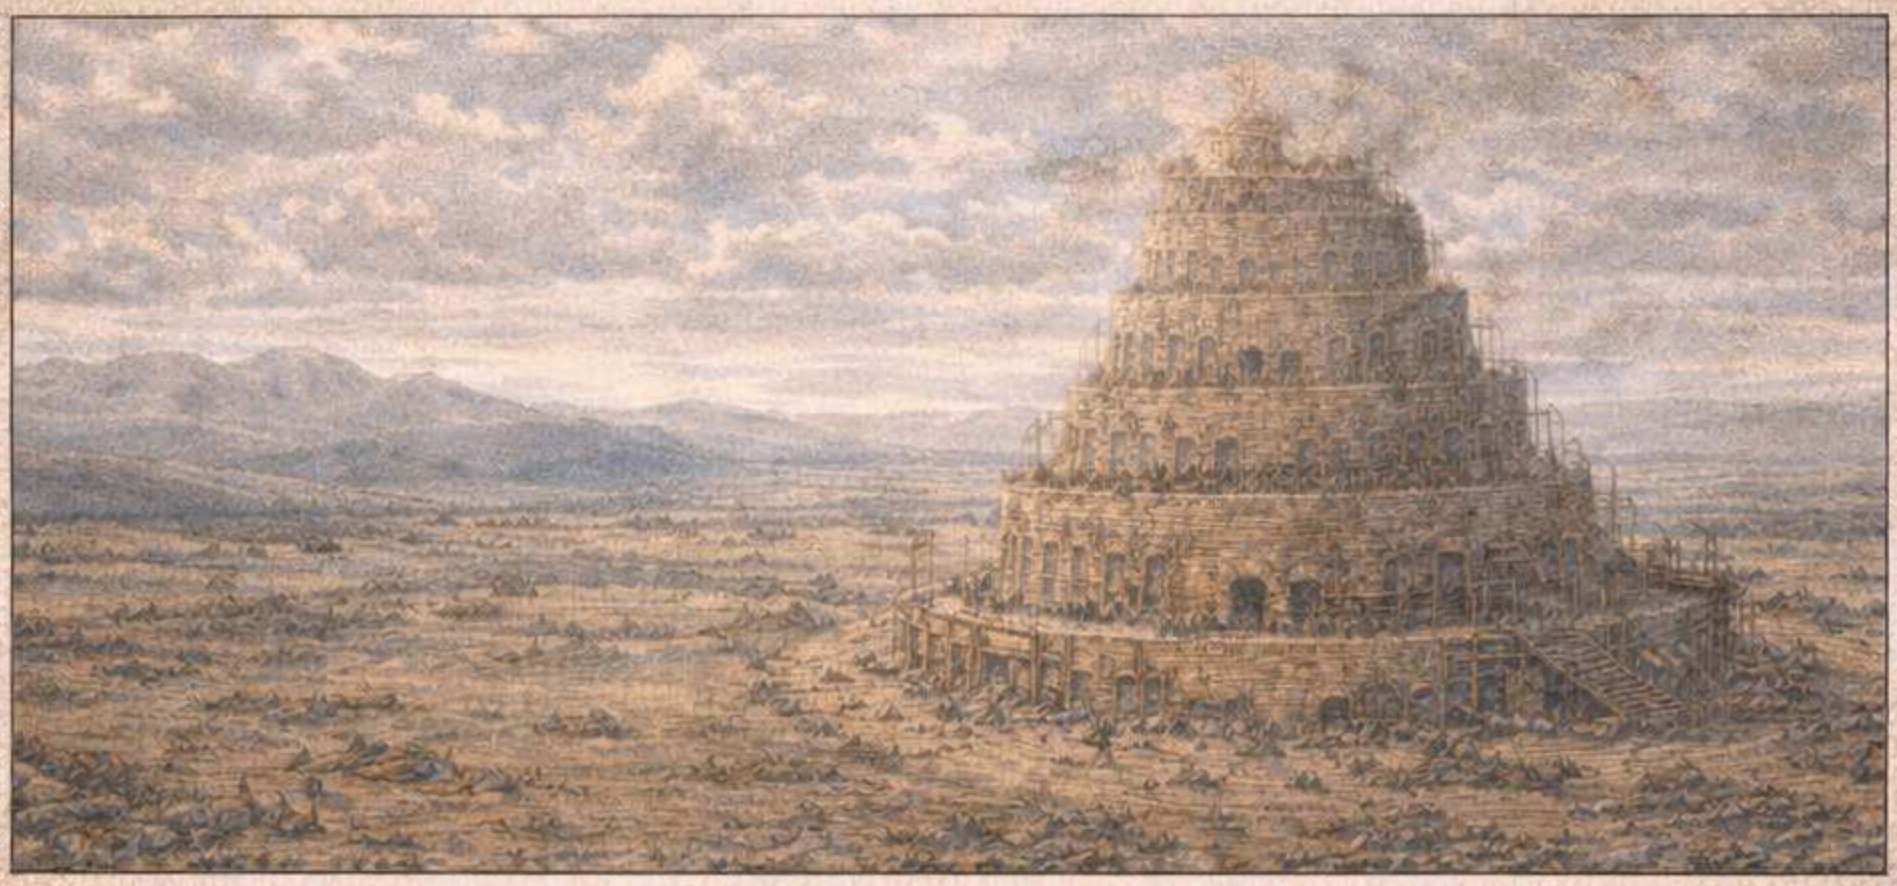


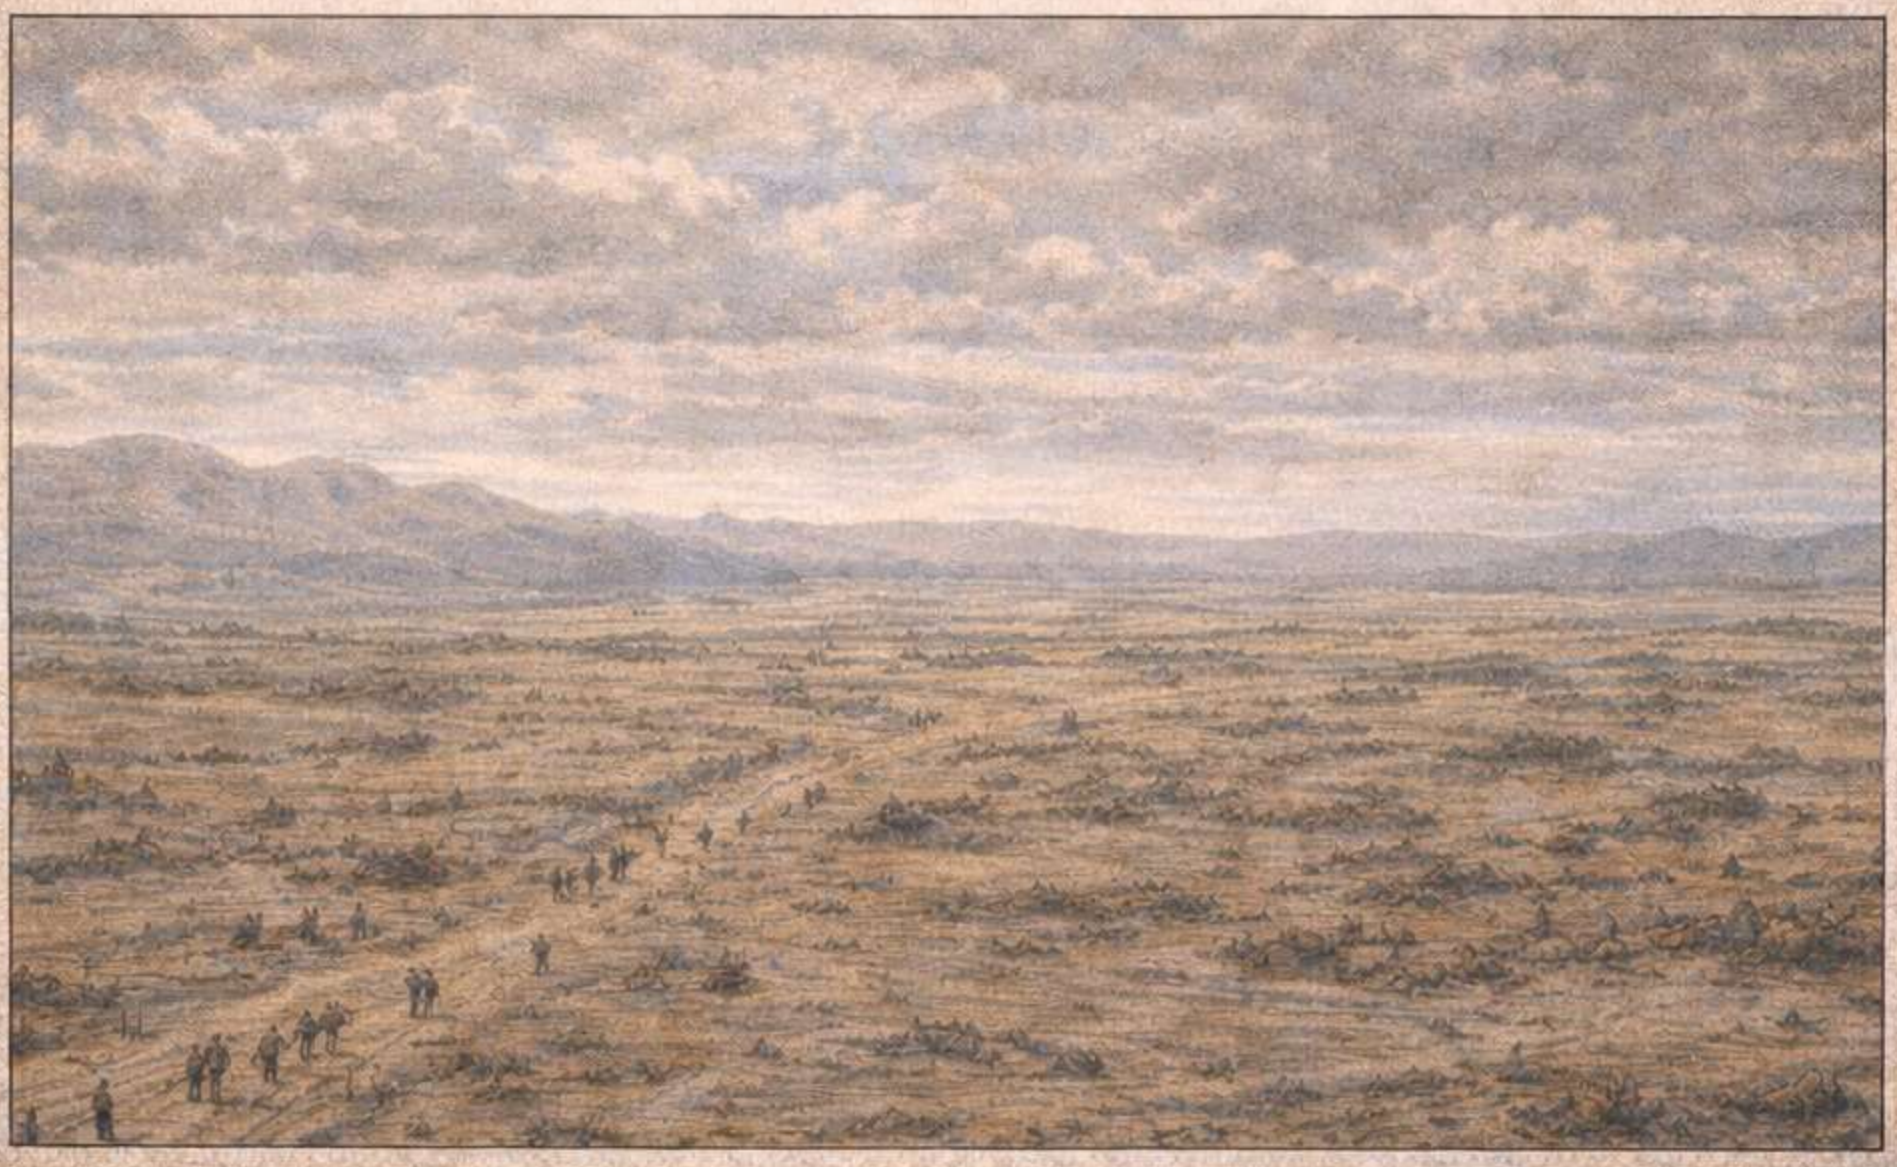
"And now nothing
that they propose to do
will be impossible for them."

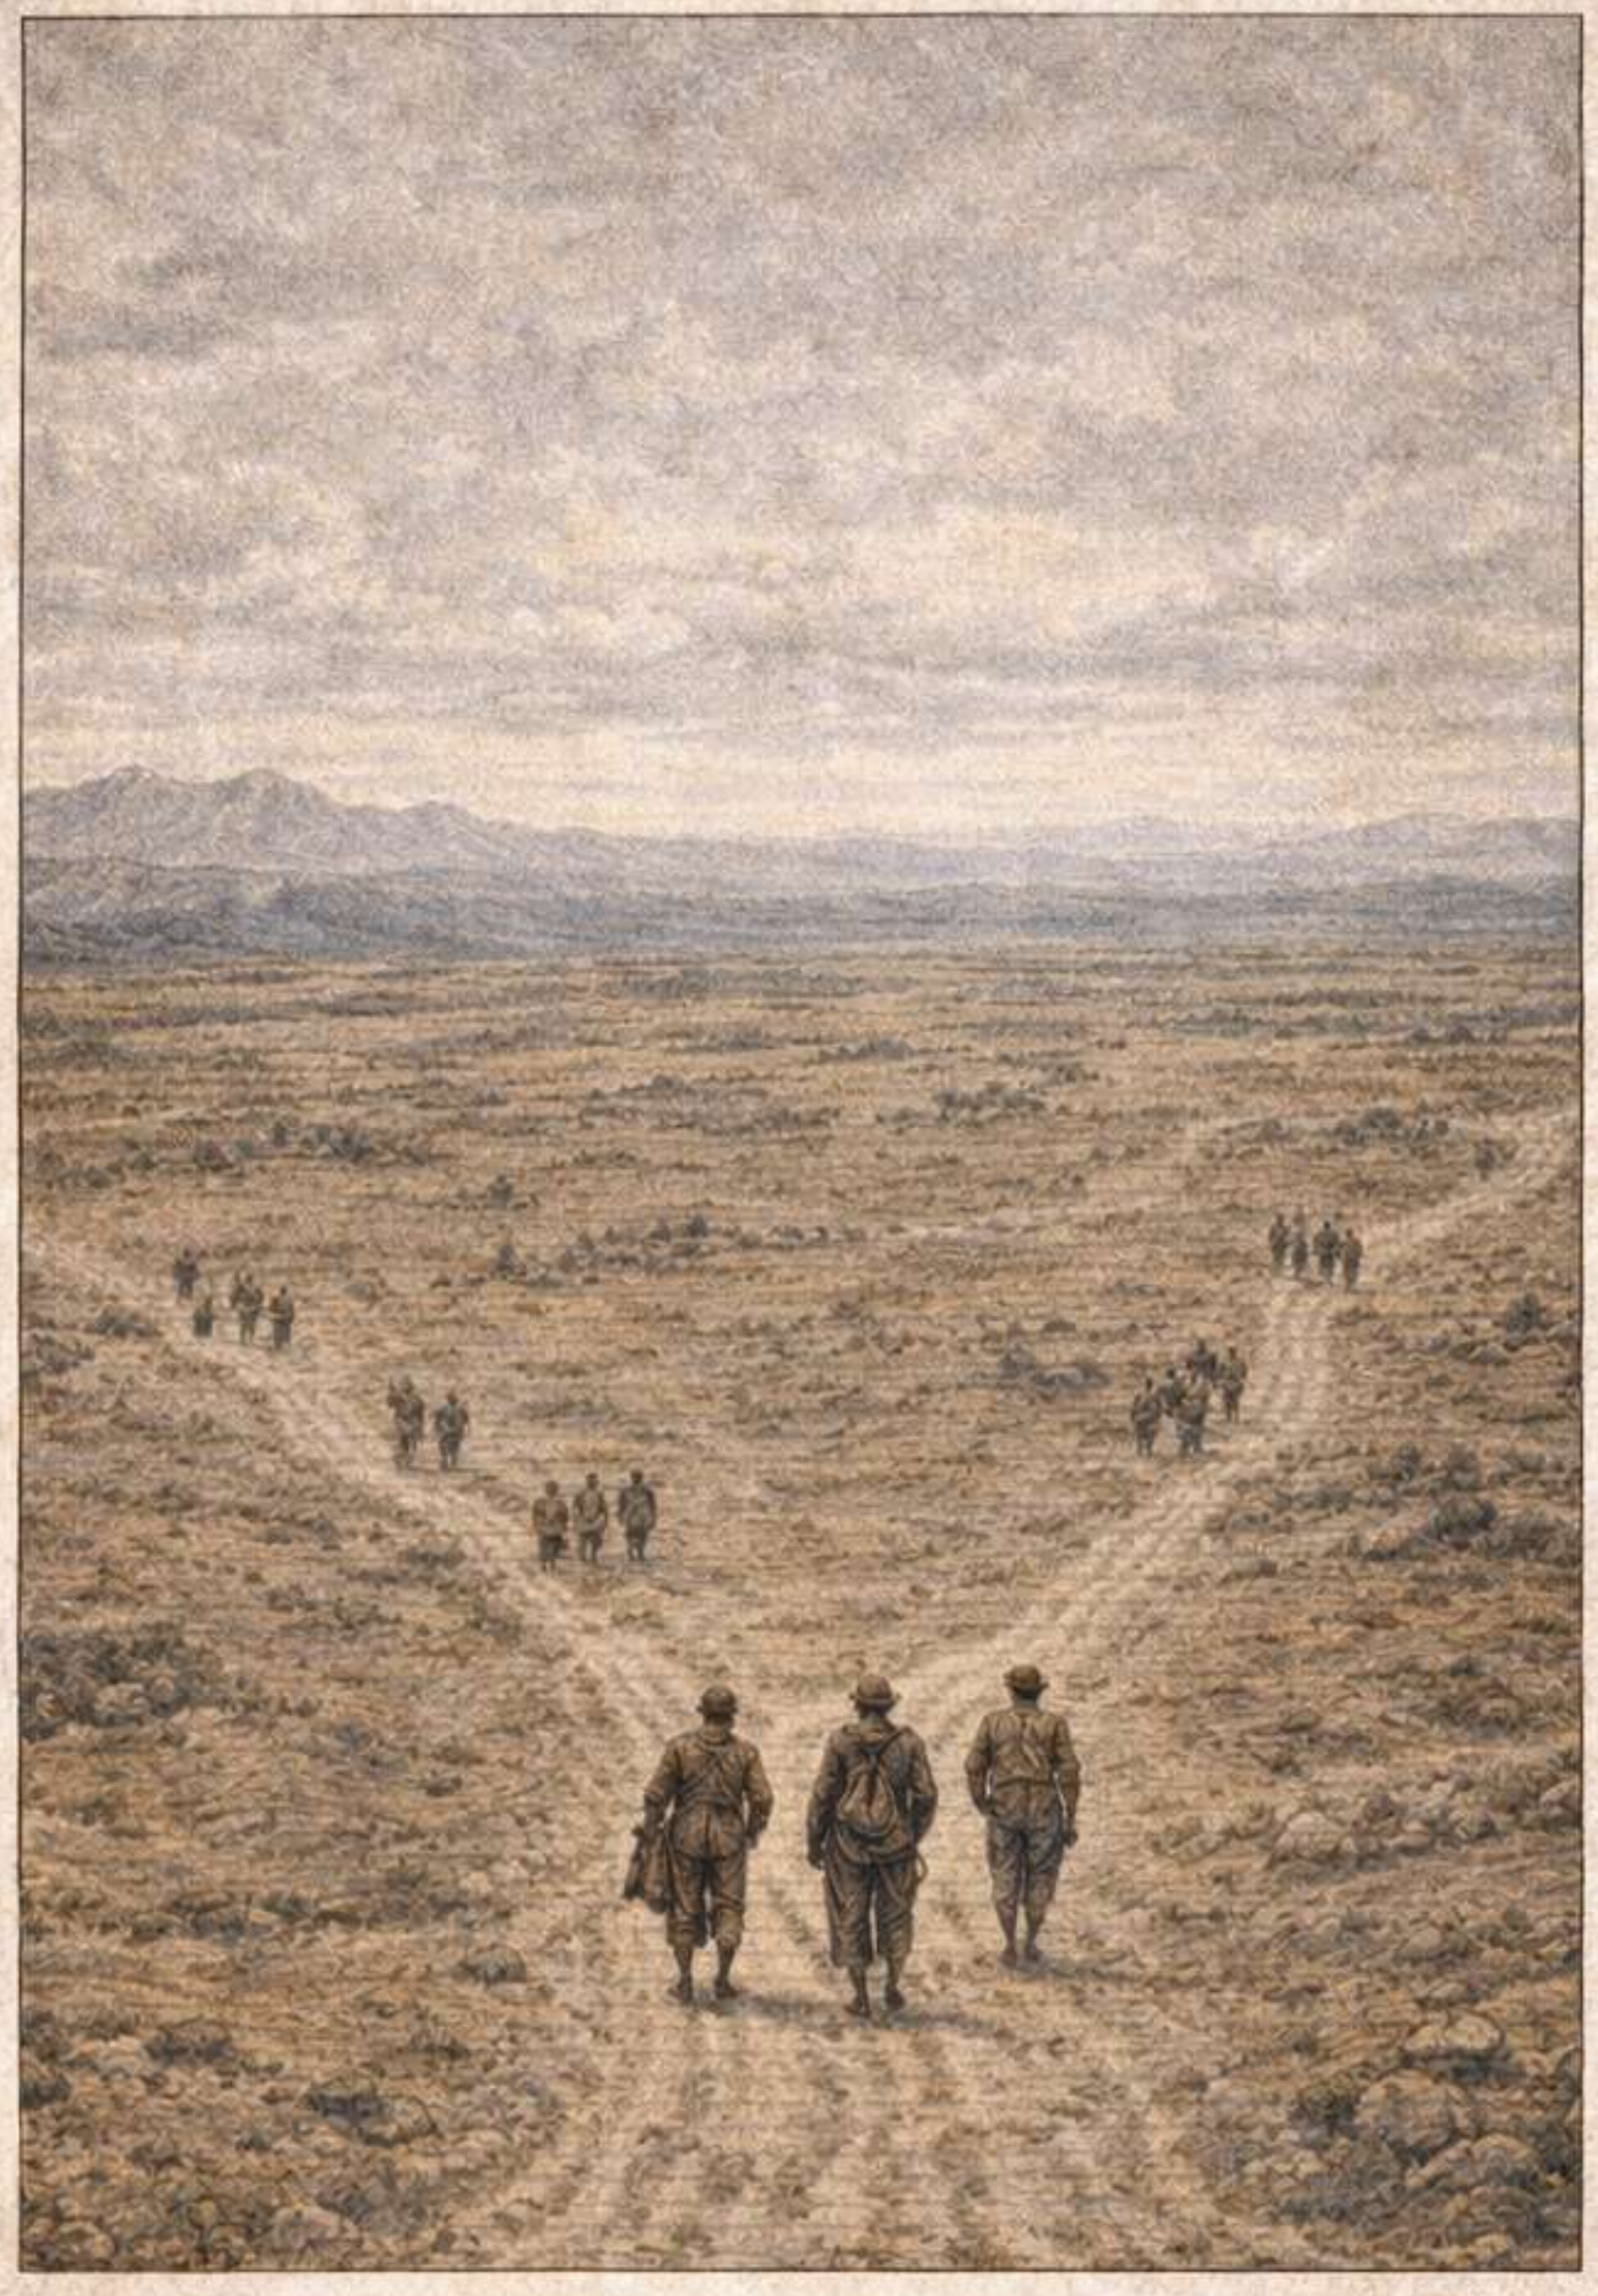
“Come, let Us go down,
and confuse their language there,
so that they may not understand
one another’s speech.”

(Genesis 11:7)









After Babel,

the sons of Japheth,

Ham, and Shem,

went their separate ways—

each carrying the sound of their own tongue.

The sons of Canaan and Ham looked upon the ruins of Babel—

—and said, "We will build higher."

They became priests of corruption, reshaping what had fallen.

They shaped ziggurats, pyramids—
rising above hands,
mimicking the mightiest of mountains
reaching for heaven through stone and labor.

EGYPT—

AND THE ZIGGURAT KINGDOMS OF BABYLON—

The sons of Japheth
mimicked the knowledge of the God of Shem.

What Japheth built for relief,
comfort
became an obsession
of empire and security.

They polished their own hands,
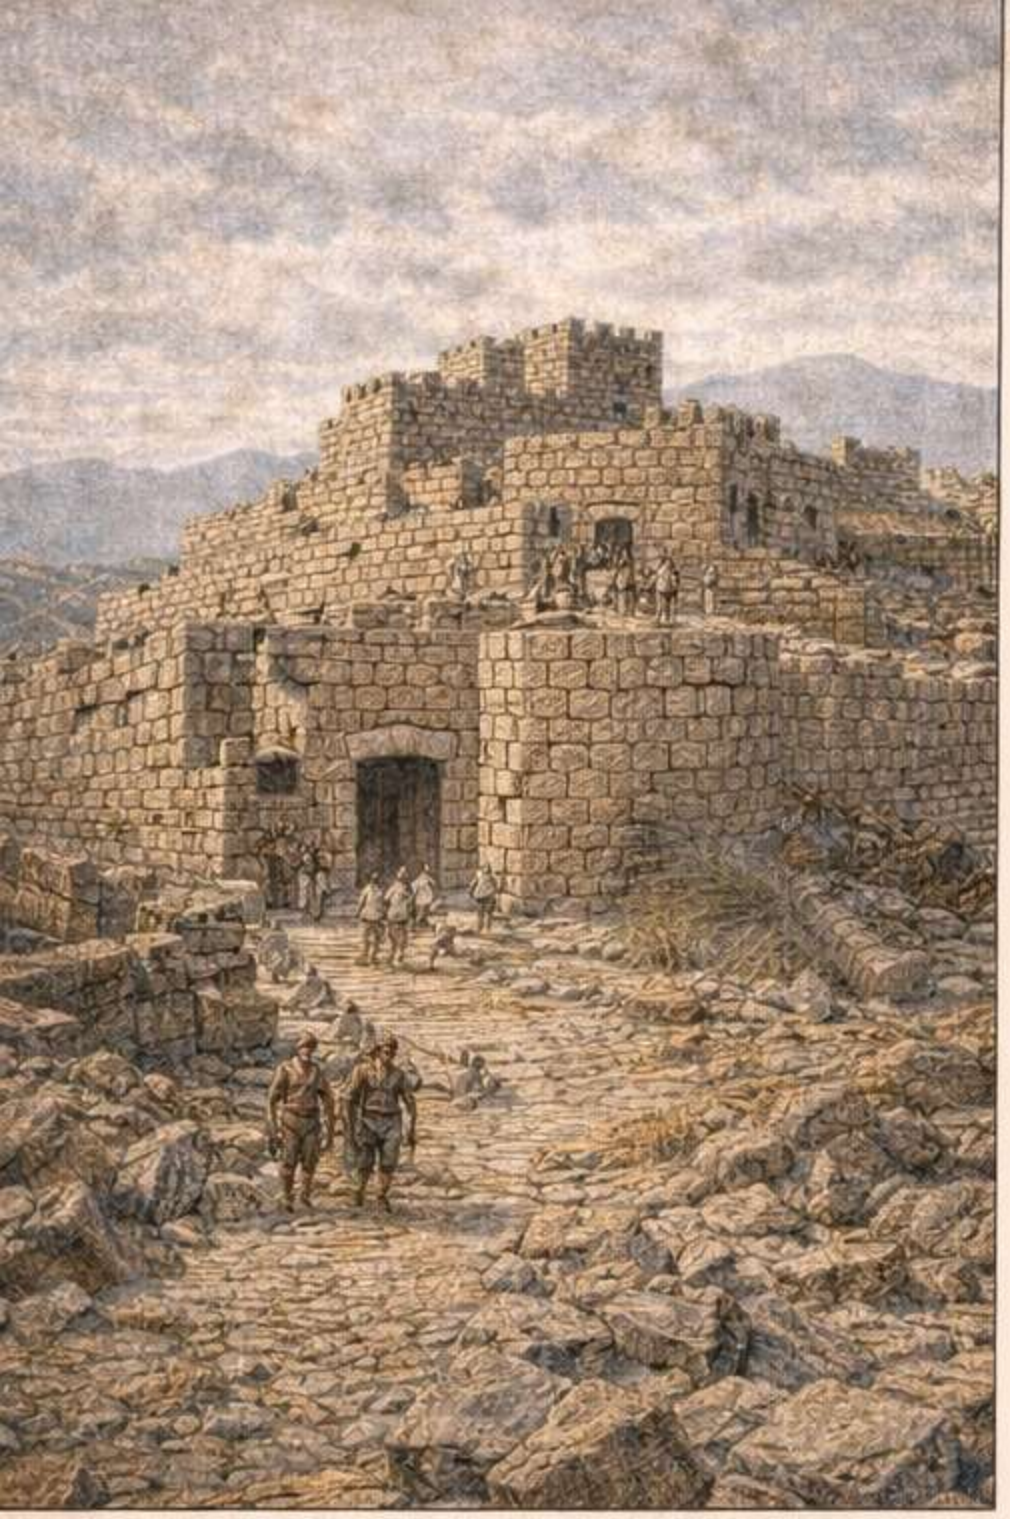
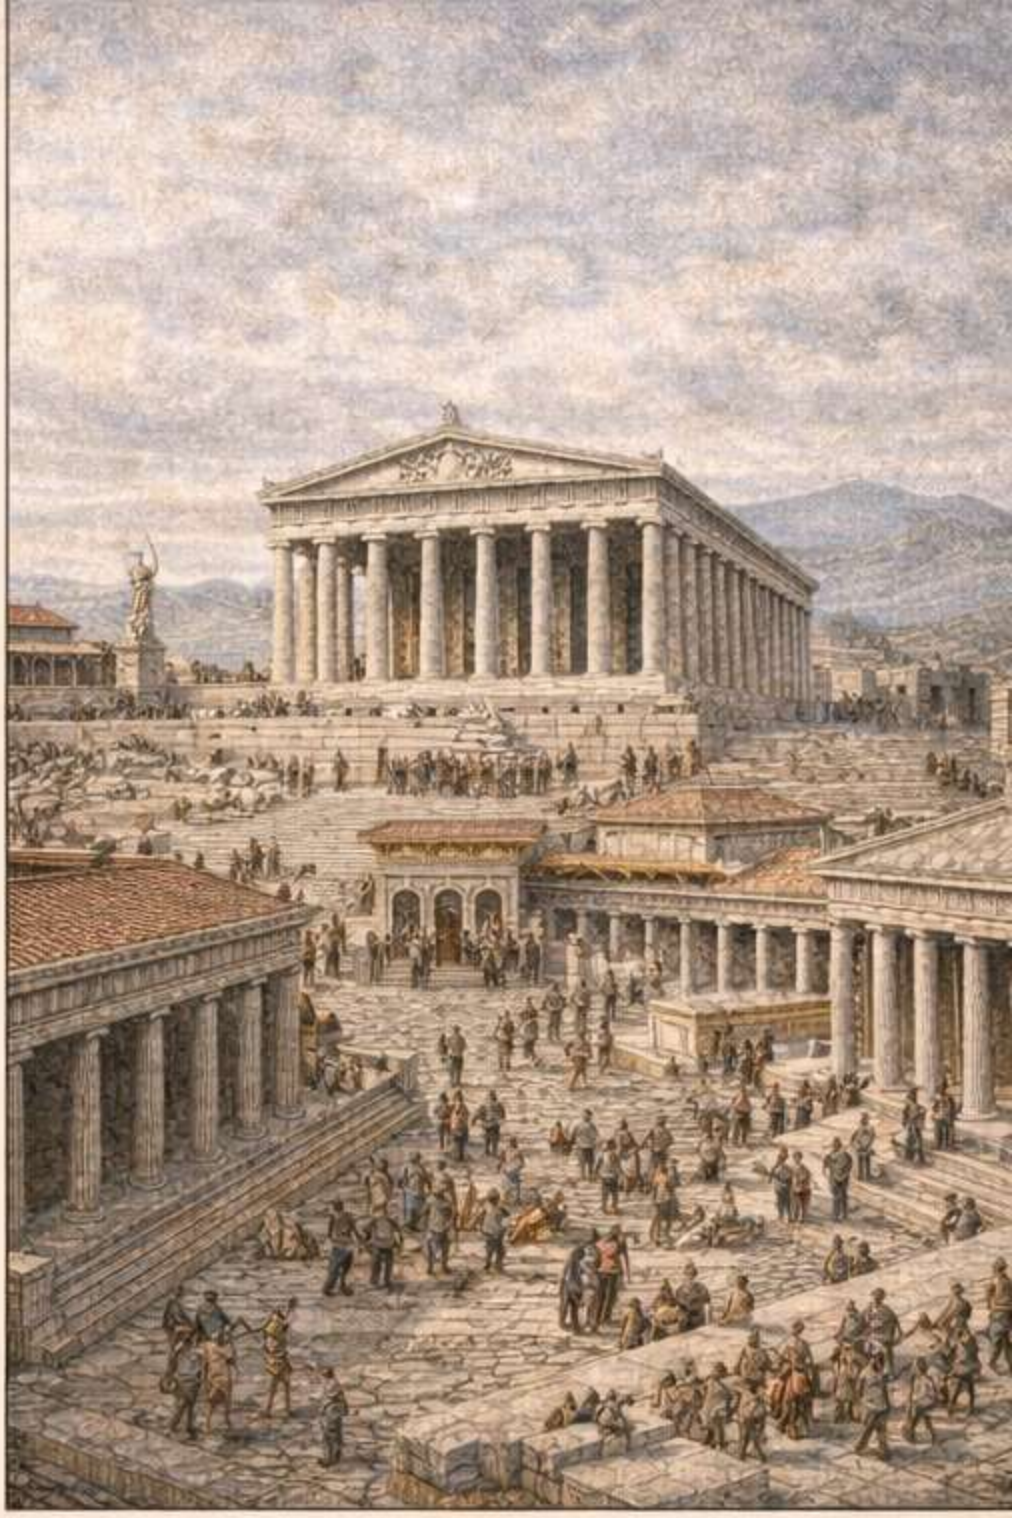
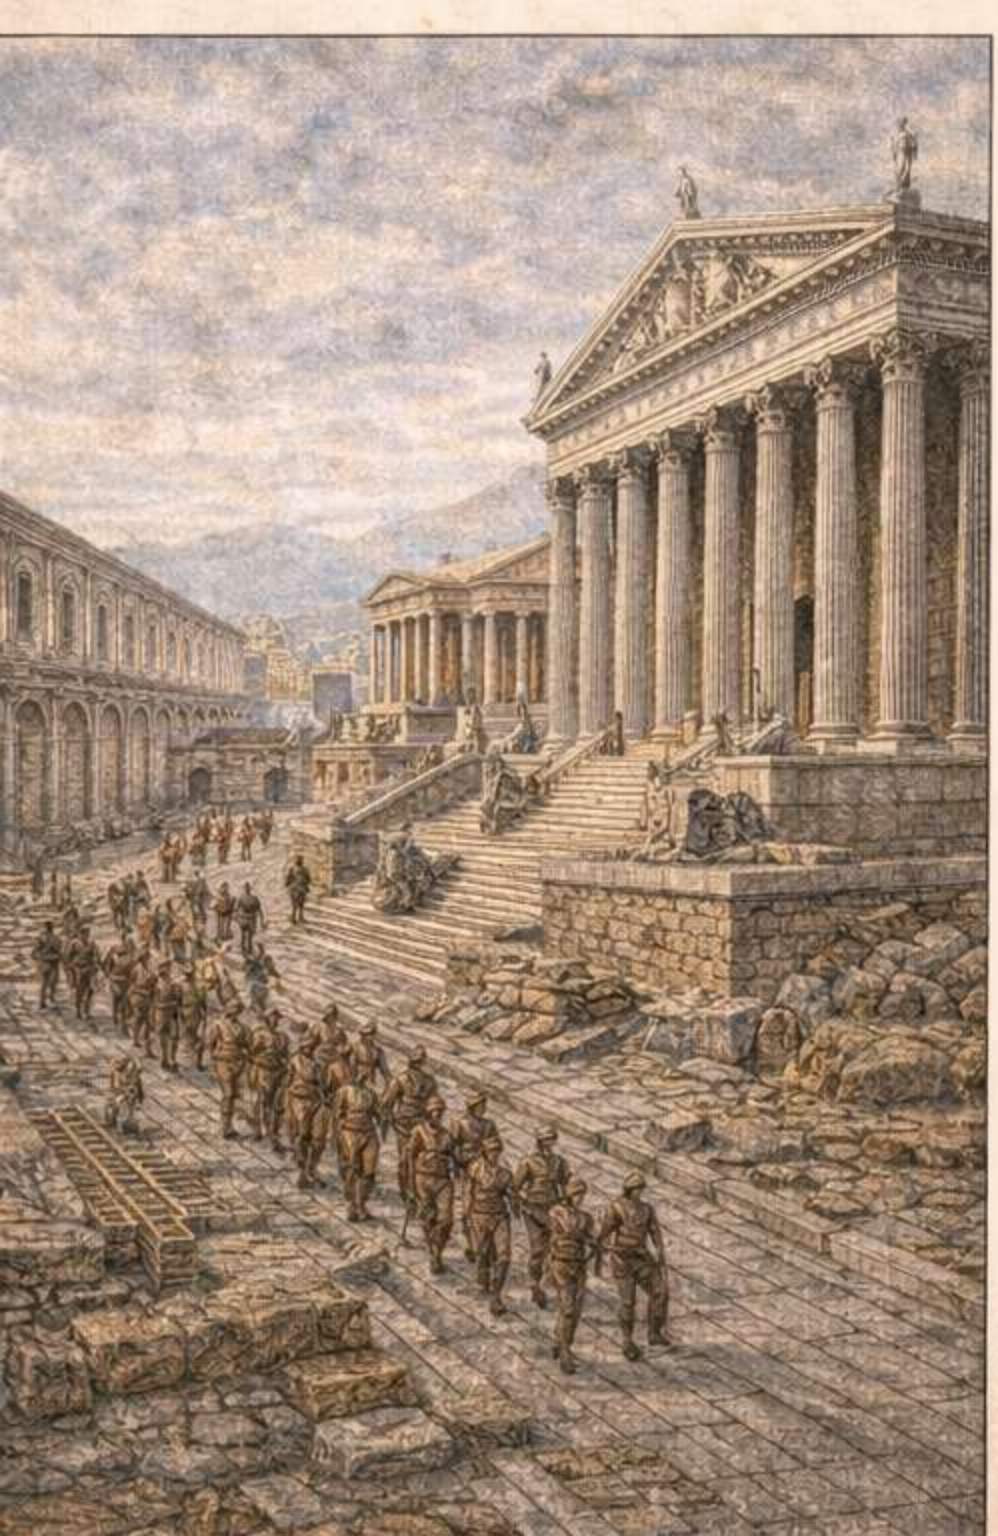
and began to forge
bronze and iron.

built kingdoms of
order without spirit—
wise in craft,
but hollow in heart.







Shem and the East

(The Dividing within)

Shem remained faithful
to the God of Noah,
walking in the memory of the Flood

The Fork Within

But among his sons,
not all remained.
Some turned away—

Wisdom W*ithout* God

They sought wisdom
without the LORD—

The East Grows

The sons of Shem scattered quietly through the wilderness.

Their city had fallen, their names faded—

and they endured—

*d*welling in tents,

keeping the breath of truth alive
in small, hidden places.

Unseen, unrecorded, yet faithful.

Their faith prepared the way.

for the call that would come later—

in the fullness of time,

the LORD would call another man.

to raise a nation—

where His Name would never be forgotten...

and save the world
